

PRESS RELEASE

Uljana Nowak takes over management of the "Wallcovering" business unit

Lahnstein, 1st September 2020 – On 1st August 2020, Uljana Nowak joined Lahnpaper. As Business Unit Manager "Wallcovering", she is responsible for the wallpaper and liner division.

Uljana Nowak has many years of experience in the wallpaper industry, especially in international sales and key account management. Her customers include companies in the DIY sector as well as wholesalers and retailers.

With her extensive experience, Uljana Nowak will enrich the sales team at Lahnpaper and will further promote the expansion of the nonwoven wallpaper and liner business.

Lahnpaper, quality manufacturer and market leader on the international market for fibre products, has been offering varitess®, the leading brand for nonwoven wallpaper and liner, for more than 20 years. Our special papers and nonwovens are also used in demanding industrial products, unique print products and security documents.

About Lahnpaper:

LAHNPAPER is a medium-sized company of the Kajo Neukirchen Group in Eschborn and a leading manufacturer of synthetic fibre papers, impregnated specialty papers and nonwovens with an annual turnover of approx. 40 million €. In selected market segments LAHNPAPER is the market leader with a special paper machine and flexible production possibilities. The company employs about 160 people.